

SAPEM has a vacancy for a Draftsman / Fabrication Engineer

Introduction
Job Title:	Draftsman/Fabrication Engineer
Business Line:	Asset Based Non-Drilling
Department:	Fabrication
Requirements
Qualification:	Diploma / Bachelor's Degree in Engineering
Knowledge of the English Language:	Yes
Labour Relationship:	Permanent Contract
Years of Experience:	5 in a related capacity
It Skills:	Proficiency in Auto CAD, Excel, Inventor
Soft Skills:	Verbal /Written/ Interpersonal Skills
Nice To Have:	Knowledge of Shop Fabrication, Assembly Drawings, Shop Drawings, Fabrication Drawings, Engineering Drawings, Construction Drawings & As-Built Drawings
Location:	Georgetown

OBJECTIVE:

- Perform 3D modelling and 2D drafting tasks required by the Project within schedule and with due respect to Quality and Safety requirements related to design, verification, testing or study activities
- Interface with the Design Engineering Office and Site Fabrication on Structural and Piping Fabrication

RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES:

- Develop and issue shop drawings and, at the same time, relevant MTO / WSL in the correct format for use, based on referenced standard methodologies.
- In the case of 3D models shared with Design Engineering, ensure coordination to synchronize updates and revisions.
- Preparation of Shop drawings for Fabrication activities, Verification and Updating of Shop drawings.
- In case of shop design activity subcontracted, perform the Verification step of subcontractor deliverables, with the due level of extension.
- Prepare and share MTO / WSL / NDT rules in the Fabrication Management System and verify that the operation is successful and correct.
- For all changes generated in the yard to Design documentation, obtain preventive approval from Design Engineering.
- Predispose the issue of “As Built” design documentation, tracking all changes and relevant approval references in a Master Copy of Design documentation set, utilizing Red Marking where applicable.
- Issue “As Built” SHOP drawings/documentation.
- Contribute and support the project to pursue the best Engineering / Procurement / Installation solutions, accounting for Fabrication effectiveness (Constructability process).
- Interface with Project Design specialists to analyze and process Design deliverables of competence.
- Provide technical support to production activities, internal and subcontracted, and be the reference for any issue and support solutions involving Fabrication Design specialists when necessary.
- Keep technical documentation up to date, including Design documentation red mark-up with reference to approval documentation.
- Support drafting of the subcontractor’s scope of work.
- Any other duties as assigned by the supervisor

Please send your resume with the subject "Draftsman / Fabrication Engineer" to saipemgcareers@saipem.com

Please note, that the application closing date is December 27th, 2024.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.