- 1.1.2. Your firm is being asked to submit information (hereinafter referred to as a “Submission”). A contractual obligation is not created between Proponent and Company by a Submission in response to this RFI. It is Company’s intention to consider the Submissions in order to determine a bidders list for a prospective Request for Proposal (“RFP”), should Company, in its sole discretion, decide to issue an RFP for the Work, however it is under no obligation to do so.

- 1.1.8. This RFI and any communication through this RFI process shall not be construed as an agreement, contract, or obligation to purchase Work from Proponent.
- 1.1.9. Proponents must obtain for themselves at their own responsibility and expense all information necessary for the preparation of a Submission.
- 1.1.10. Company reserves the right to amend, add to or withdraw all or any part of this RFI at any time during the RFI process and shall not be liable for any costs incurred or damages suffered by the Proponent, of any nature whatsoever, as a result of such amendment, addition or withdrawal. If Company withdraws the entire RFI, Proponent shall promptly delete all RFI documentation that was provided by Company.
