

Sicim Guyana Inc. is recruiting for the following position: Electrical Technician (Heavy Equipment)

Job Summary

To perform skilled and semi-skilled work involved in the electrical servicing, maintenance and repair of the vehicles and equipment, heavy construction equipment and other equipment; to maintain simple records related to shop operations; and to perform related duties and responsibilities as required.

Responsibilities:

- Carry out electrical maintenance, fault finding and monitoring of the heavy equipment and other related equipment.
- Ensure maximum operational availability of heavy equipment by diagnostic work and repair methods.
- Submit routine inspection and monitoring reports as required.
- Carry out duties independently when called out and report breakdowns and faults.
- Assume additional responsibility for heavy equipment maintenance in the absence of Supervisor.
- Ensure work practice conforms to safety regulations and procedures.
- Ensure that all preventive maintenance (electrical) is conducted as defined in the system.
- Attend to breakdowns as reported by Staff & Equipment Control on an immediate basis.
- Submit correct information about start time and end time of maintenance activity.

Experience:

3-5 years of experience in similar position

Qualifications:

High School Diploma

Craft certificate in heavy machinery electronics

How to Apply

Please send resume with the subject “Electrical Technician” to c.dawan@sicim.eu

Closing date for application is Friday 27th October 2023