Building a Safety Culture in Guyana

Health, Safety, Security, and Environment (HSSE) are paramount concerns in the country's rapidly evolving landscape. With Guyana's emergence as an oil producer, the opportunity to fortify and embed HSSE practices within Guyanese business culture has never been greater.

The Centre is your trusted partner in championing safety excellence and is committed to nurturing a robust safety culture across Guyana. The Centre offers specialised organisational training in HSSE through its acclaimed HSSE Management Systems Introductory Course and Mentorship Programme. These courses are recommended for companies interested in learning how to build a safety system for your company, whether operating in oil and gas, construction, medical, an office-based environment and more.
