Doing Business in Guyana, Connect with the Centre

The oil and gas sector has helped to expand Guyana's business ecosystem and fuel broader country development in all sectors of the country. The Centre is uniquely positioned to help incoming companies understand the Guyanese business landscape and find their potential local partner through its business mission package.

With a proven track record of success from previous missions since 2017 and powered by the Centre Hub with over 4,000 local businesses, the Centre can tailor a mission to suit your business needs. Whether it be a group organised through an international association or an individual company looking for to enter the Guyanese market, contact the Centre today to help you get started.

The Centre's Unique Approach

- Specialised market reports and one-on-one pre-mission consultations.
- One-to-one meetings with local business, pre-screened to match specific business objectives for joint venture, distribution, or direct sales in the local market.
- Briefings on operational and investment outlooks by key stakeholders.
- Roundtables with the legal and tax experts on local requirements.
- Site visits to local facilities and operations to match mission group's interests.
- Networking events with key stakeholders from local industry players including the corporate community, business associations and more.
- Post mission evaluation and advisory services to help you take your business to the next level
